

1. For the purpose of this rule, Permanent Residents should be treated like US citizens, since they have already been screened.

2. The proposed authorization should be given to the individual seeking flight training, not the flight schools. This would reduce the burden on the flight schools of submitting the information and would also allow the individual to seek training anywhere (in case the person decides to change flight schools or seek training in multiple places within the 6-month period)